

EV sales have tripled in the last year in Australia. We have the capability for lithium mining, battery production and EV manufacturing. A modern renewable energy-driven facility can be a global leader in vehicle production.

- Make available source funding for lithium battery EV production facilities
- Promote and support the establishment of EV production in Australia

[illegible]